

HOMES • TRAVEL • FOOD • PROPERTY • GARDENS • HEALTH & BEAUTY

coast

living by the sea

JUNE 2008 £3.99

NEED A BREAK?

You must go down to the sea...

- * Rest and recover at a seaside hideaway
- * Breathe again on a walking festival
- * Boost energy levels with outdoor sports

TRAVEL

MEET THE KING
OF A REMOTE
IRISH ISLAND &
HIS ARTIST PALS

HEAD TO THE DURHAM COAST
FOR ISOLATION AND BEAUTY

PROPERTY SPECIAL

THE BEST COASTAL TOWNS FOR SEA VIEWS
SCHOOLS AND QUALITY OF LIFE

45 PAGES OF : silver surfers
SEASIDE HOMES : rise up! YOU'RE NEVER & COASTAL STYLE : TOO OLD TO CATCH A WAVE

PLUS: THE 10 BEST PLACES FOR COASTAL WILDLIFE – A BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO COOKING FISH

1

2

1 For a selection of pretty cushions, check out Cabbages & Roses – the Pink Hatley cushion (60 per cent linen, 40 per cent cotton) looks great next to the pink wall, £50

2 This Emily dining chair (H86 x W38 x D38cm) from Marston & Langinger is a replica of a 19th-century French design in hand-forged, plain wrought iron, £225

3 Architectural antiques and salvage company Lassco sells terracotta pots, from £3

4 The floral tile (13 x 13cm) is handmade by Wendy Wilbraham – the selection is frost proof, so is ideal for the garden. Each costs from £19.50 plus p&p

5 Suitable for indoor and outdoor use, this limewash paint – here in Pigi's Piggy Pink – will weather with age and is available in 154 colours. From Francesca's Paints, £17 per litre coast LOVES...

3

4

5

...the striking pink wall, which is influenced by the Mexican architect Luis Barragan, in WENDY WILBRAHAM's bijou garden. In summer, the area is a suntrap and as the plants dry out, she fills terracotta pots with pebbles, sea glass and shells