

INTERIORS DIRECTORY

theguardian | February 2008

THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO BRITAIN'S FINEST
INDEPENDENT SHOPS AND SUPPLIERS

FABRICATIONS

7 Broadway Market, London E8 4PH, 020-7275 8043, fabrications1.co.uk
Run by local Hackney designer Barley Massey, Fabrications stocks a range of home accessories such as cushions, wall hangings, cards, knitting and sewing supplies, floor coverings, ceramics and placemats. Many are Massey's own designs but she also sells work by local designers and offers a bespoke service, producing cushions out of customers' clothes or material at her on-site workshop. Her more unusual pieces include lucky dice, spare tyre cushions and floor coverings that look like double yellow lines.

FABRIC WORLD

287-289 High Street, Sutton Surrey SM1 1LL, 020-8643 5127; 6-10 Brighton Road, Craydon CR2 6AA, 020-8688 6282; fabricworldlondon.co.uk
Fabric World is a family-run designer fabric discount shop: end-of-line ranges are bought in bulk then sold off piecemeal. The shop also offers a made-to-measure service: fabrics bought here can be made into curtains, bedspreads, loose furniture covers and blinds at the on-site workshop in Sutton.

FRANCESCA'S PAINTS

34 Battersea Business Centre, 99-109 Lavender Hill, London SW11 5QL, 020-7228 7694, francescaspaints.com
Francesca Wezel's shop specialises in limewash, one of the oldest forms of housepaint and one particularly suited to walls with excess moisture. Her paint has been used on historical buildings including The Victoria at Holkham and Burke Hall at Balmoral Castle. Other paints include chalky emulsion, eco emulsion and gloss. There are 154 colours available, inspired by Wezel's travels; despite this hefty carbon footprint, she tries to ensure her paints are as ecologically sound as possible. All colours are mixed on site; Wezel also provides a colour consultation service at customers' homes.

HAMILTON WESTON WALLPAPERS

18 St Mary's Grove, Richmond, Surrey TW9 1UY, 020-8940 4850, hamiltonweston.com
Husband and wife Robert Weston and Georgina Hamilton opened this shop in 1986; their wallpaper reproduces designs from the Georgian era to the 1950s. Hamilton Weston designs, which are mostly hand-printed by in the UK, have been used in films including Bridget Jones's Diary: The Edge of Reason, Pride & Prejudice and Atonement (the Bridget Jones wallpaper, dubbed On The Edge, can be made to order). The shop also stocks brands including Osborne & Little, Liberty, Nina Campbell, Cole & Son and Colefax & Fowler. Lesser known designers include local Richmond wallpaper designer Marthe Armitage and American reproduction wallpaper company Adelphi Paper Hangings. An interior design service is available.

HELEN YARDLEY

28-29 Great Sutton Street, London EC1V 0DS, 020-7253 9242, helenyardley.com
Helen Yardley sells brightly coloured rugs and wallhangings made of wool, linen and felt; her designs are predominantly produced in the UK and she also offers a bespoke service. Yardley has provided rugs and wallhangings for the Royal Bank of Scotland, the London Stock Exchange, Great Ormond Street Hospital and Portcullis House in London's House of Commons.

IAN MANKIN

109 Regents Park Road, Primrose Hill, London NW1 8UR, 020-7722 0997; 271 Wandsworth Bridge Road, London SW6 2TX, 020-7371 8825; ianmankin.com
Ian Mankin started out designing leather clothes before moving into fabrics, with a range of striped, checked, plain and textured cotton and linen. His two shops both sell the full range of Mankin's fabrics.

JOSS GRAHAM

10 Eccleston Street, London SW1W 9LT, 020-7730 4370, jossgraham.com
Joss Graham's shop specialises in antique handmade textiles from around the world, particularly Africa and Asia, including wall hangings, cushions, kilims and rugs and traditional costumes and jewellery. A range of baskets, glassware and ceramics is also available. Additionally, there's a repairs and cleaning service for old, fragile textiles. Graham, whose interest in non-Western fabrics grew out of his study of anthropology, also holds exhibitions in the shop.

L&B LONDON

6-7 Motcomb Street, London SW1X 8JU, 020-7838 9592, landblondon.com
Interior designer Leonora Beaubois sells luxury bedlinen from Italy in a range of materials. Towels and bathrobes are also on sale and can be embroidered with names, monograms and logos. The shop also stocks tableware from Hermes, St. Louis and Christofle and accessories by other Italian brands. An interior design service is available.

MALABAR

31-33 The South Bank Business Centre, Ponton Road, London SW8 5BL, 020-7501 4200, malabar.co.uk
Founded by Peter Sterck over 15 years ago, Malabar stocks fabric designs inspired by the Indian subcontinent. All the fabrics are yarn-dyed and most of them are handwoven. Paints and wallpapers are also available. "There is also a diverse range of high quality handwoven kilims, lighting, hand-painted ceramic tiles and handles, jewellery, accessories and gifts. All goods are personally sourced and ethically produced."

OSBORNE & LITTLE

304 King's Road, London SW3 5UH, 020-7352 1456, osborneandlittle.com
Osborne & Little stocks a range of wallpapers, fabrics and furniture, some by in-house designers, some by award-winning designer Nina Campbell. Vases, lamps and candles are also sold and a bespoke furniture service is available.

PAINT & PAPER LIBRARY

5 Elystan Street, London SW3 3NT, 020-7823 7755; 1-11 North Dome, Chelsea Harbour Design Centre, London SW10 0XF, 020-7352 8001, paintlibrary.co.uk
Founded by David Oliver in 1996, the Paint & Paper Library sells paint and wallpaper from in-house designers and from names such as Allegra Hicks. Paints are mixed at the Elystan Street shop; home visits can be arranged for a colour consultation and colour advice workshops are held monthly at the Chelsea Harbour showroom.

PICKWICK PAPERS & FABRICS

6 Nelson Road, London SE10 9JB, 020-8858 1205, pickwickpapers.co.uk
A family business that's been going for 35 years, Pickwick Papers & Fabrics sources wallpapers and fabrics from designers such as Colefax & Fowler, Designers Guild, Zoffany, Cole & Son and Sanderson as well as offering a made-to-measure service for curtains, blinds, cushions and beanbags from the in-store workshop. There's also a selection of carpets, rugs and paint; the latter can be mixed to order in the shop. Owner Julia Johnson offers an interior designer service and will order in furniture.

RICHARD MORANT

27 Chestpost Corner, Chestpost Place, London W2 4XE, 020-7727 2566, richardmorant.com
British actor turned carpet dealer Richard Morant sells carpets, rugs and kilims from Turkey, Nepal and India as well as antique rugs, silk-embroidered cushions from Uzbekistan and African and Peruvian textiles. A bespoke service is available, as are basic cleaning and restoration services.

ROGER OATES

FLOORS & FABRICS

ROGER OATES

1 Munro Terrace, London SW10 0DL, 0845-612 0072, rogeroates.com
Roger Oates has been designing flooring for over 20 years; he opened his first London shop in Chelsea in 2001. His speciality is striped stair runners made from pure new wool; these are sold alongside his own rug, fabric and bedlinen collections in both the London showroom and another in Eastnor, Herefordshire. At the latter branch, there is also a broader range of homeware available, including lighting and glassware. "You can view the complete collections on the website and if there is nothing you fancy there's a bespoke service. Staff are always on hand to give advice about style, design and fitting."