

SUNDAY

INSIDE

Your brilliant 12-page
"Travel on Sunday" pull-out

SOPHIA MONEY-COUTTS
Etonians aren't scum
— but I've known a few
cads and bounders

P.4

THE SUNDAY COOK
Appetising breakfast
bites to boost your morning mood

P.5

FASHION
Virginia Chadwyck-Healey finds the perfect jeans —
and they're under £100

P.11

GARDENING
Can you dig it? The ten coolest garden
centres in the land

P.14

One of a kind: Diana Potts in her kitchen in Islington, north London

No one in the world has a kitchen like mine

Why settle for something run-of-the-mill when you can bring the 'wow factor' to home decoration? It's time, says Jenny Tucker, to dare to be different

Some people prefer not to run with the crowd. They are the sort who find sidestepping the more intriguing rather than daunting. They are the adventurous souls who want to try something different.

So, when it comes to your interiors, are you willing to avoid the best standard? By choosing bespoke, you're signalling you are going your own way and creating something that's totally unique. It may simply be a paint colour, mixed to your individual specifications, or it could be an entire redesign of a room, collated from weeks of research.

Maybe your reinvention is a practical solution to a tricky nook or a wonky footprint. But one thing is for sure: you won't see the like of it anywhere else. And surely that makes your home that extra bit special. So go on — dive in and be daring with your decoration.

Ella Keane, 36, who runs a consultancy service called Climate Concierge for a greener life at home, and her husband Craig, 38, who is

Continued on Page 2

BEST FOR BESPOKE

STAIRCASES

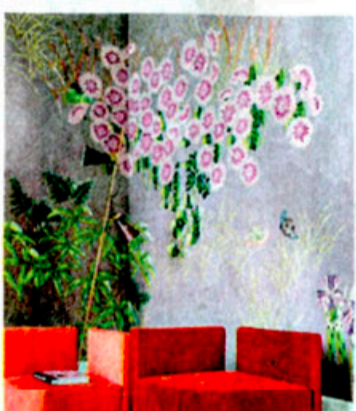

For contemporary design, epitomised by this floating stairway with walnut treads and glass handrail.

foxinteriordesign.com

STEEL FRAMES

Experts in steel windows, doors, partitions and internal screens.

fabcosanctuary.com

WALLS

Beautiful hand-painted and hand-embroidered wall coverings designed to order and measured to fit specific rooms.

fromental.co.uk

SEATING

A design service offering unique seating, wardrobes, storage and furniture.

lozidesigns.com

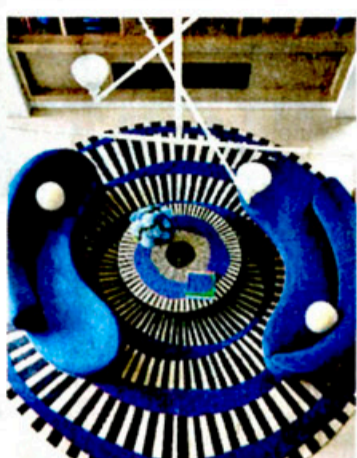

BATHROOMS

Architects who will create stunning bathrooms like this hamman-style design in coloured concrete.

FURNITURE

Commissioned pieces for a specific space – choose your own material, fabric or colour.

galvinbrothers.co.uk

RUGS

There are no limits. You can create your own design from scratch with more than 2,000 unique colours.

therugcompany.com

UPCYCLING

This talented duo upcycle used or unwanted furniture with colour and fabric to produce one-off high quality pieces.

patience-gough.com

SOFAS

Create the sofa of your dreams in any size, style or fabric.

thesofaandchair.co.uk

SINKS

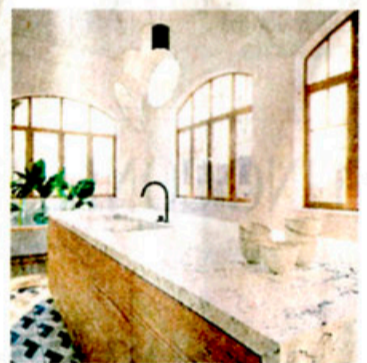

Made-to-measure kitchen sinks in Corian.

nokk.co.uk

JOINERY

For something special in original joinery, look no further than these interiors architects.

waldoworks.com

WORKTOPS

Quartz (more durable than most other stone, marble and granite) is cut and installed to specific dimensions.

caesarstone.co.uk

PAINT

Francesca's Paints are eco-friendly and can be colour matched to your sample; prices start from £27 for a litre of eco emulsion.

