1 Miró's Mallorcan studio is sparsely furnished, save for a chair and table on a woven mat (page 359). This flax version, which is just over a metre in diameter, costs £1,390 approx from Thomas Eyck. Ring 00 31 6 22 80 38 86, or visit thomaseyck.com.

2 Blue beams and a red wall stand out against a neutral backdrop in the artist's Son Boter studio in Mallorca (pages 352 and 359 respectively). Francesca's Paints offers a range of limewash paints, including 'Marco's Terracotta' (top; from £28.44 per litre) and 'Giorgio's Wisteria' (from £20.60 per litre). Ring 020 7228 7694, or visit francescaspaint.com.

3 The Winged Victory in Hospitalfields is sadly missing its flying aids (page 380), but a resin model – available in the Louvre shop to coincide with an exhibition on the over-life-size second-century BC original that runs until 9 November – will give you wings. It costs £82 approx for an 18cm version. Ring 00 33 1 40 13 47 37, or visit boutiquemusees.fr.

4 Nowadays, a needlepoint sofa like the one at this Scottish arts centre is a rarity (page 372), so slake your thirst with the 'Hillocks with Peonies and Tulip' cushion, which costs £354 from Chelsea Textiles. Ring 020 7584 01 11, or visit chelseatextiles.com. Meanwhile, head to George Smith for its 'Conversation Piece' sofa (£11,124), on which all four sitters face the room. Ring 020 7384 1004, or visit georgesmith.co.uk.

5 Think this tub looks more like something you'd see animals drink from than a bath? You're right! But don't be put off taking a dip – the owner of the container house wasn't (page 371): galvanised stock tank, $154.95, by Freeland Industries. Ring 001 800 558 9595, or visit enasco.com.

6 The music-mad owner of this Japanese home is into heavy metal lights (page 365). Put your hands in the air for these caged 'Czech' downlighters (£384 each), available from Trainspotters. Ring 01453 756677, or visit trainspotters.co.uk ■
