

New in paint

BENJAMIN MOORE

Roll up your sleeves and get creative with Benjamin Moore's new type of wall paint called Ben: a matt finish emulsion. Durable, scuff-resistant, fast-drying and low odour, it ensures an easy application, so you won't be left with brush and roller marks. Available in 3500 colours, prices start from £20 per 0.94 litres. benjaminmoorepaint.co.uk

YESCOLOURS

Time for a kitchen refresh? Upgrade your cabinetry with Yescolours' new Loving Orange shade. The bronzed, dark clay hue is inspired by Indian and Moroccan spices, as well as autumnal childhood memories. With striking red undertones, it is ideal for adding warmth to any space. From £21 for 1 litre of paint. yescolours.com

FRANCESCA'S PAINTS

Inspiration for the brand's latest collection, Postcard from Barra, comes from the Outer Hebridean island of Barra. The palette includes five calming colours reminiscent of Scotland's white sandy beaches and green rocky hills that complement each other, but work just as well on their own. From £35 for 1 litre of eco emulsion. francescaspaint.com

ZEN RETREAT

Create a tranquil space with the Halo Slate shower tray and sculptural Icon Slate freestanding basin. The tray's microtextured cornice allows water to flow into the slightly raised trap, while the basin mixes practicality and design. Both are made from Akron, Acquabella's durable, anti-bacterial material with anti-slip properties. acquabella.com

Halo Slate shower tray in Blanco, from £683.92, and Icon Slate sculptural freestanding basin in Forest Green, from £908.