

Styling tip

Kitchens are often living spaces now. With bold wall art, statement lighting and rich colours, they become inviting rooms perfect for lingering in

EMBRACE
NATURAL
HARMONY

Calm doesn't have to equal beige... green is a popular choice in kitchens as it is so soothing. It brings a pleasing connection with nature and teams brilliantly with wooden floors, stone worktops and earthenware accessories.

Design by Retrouvius. Walls painted in Moss eco emulsion, £75/2.5L, Francesca's Paints. For similar bar stools, try Vinterior. For a similar artwork, try Abstract House. For similar pendant lights, try Lighting Direct

SEPARATE YOUR SPACES →

One key to a harmonious interior is carving out individual zones, and nothing does that more elegantly than a wall of vertical slatting.

Walls in Angelico Pink eco emulsion, £65.35/2.5L, Francesca's Paints. For similar limewashed plywood balusters, try Studio Bark

LOOK BEHIND CLOSED DOORS ↘

No-clutter spaces need to be seamless, so hide laundry appliances in a cupboard. Folding doors balance usability and ease of access.

For similar bifold doors, try Homebase. For similar baskets, try Dunelm

STREAMLINE YOUR STORAGE ↓

There's something very pleasing about handleless cupboards that open and close at the merest touch, behind which you can hide all your bulkier items.

Wall in Whitehall No.9 marble matt emulsion, £55/2.5L; cupboards in Hoxton Grey No.72 wood and metal matt, £76/2.5L; both Mylands. Ecru Zellige tiles, £153.60/sq m, Otto →

